

Dr. Robin Ducas completed medical school, Internal Medicine and Cardiology training at the University of Manitoba. She obtained her FRCPC in Cardiology in 2014 and then went on to complete 2 years of Adult Congenital Heart Disease clinical and research fellowship at the Toronto General Hospital, University of Toronto in 2016. Dr. Ducas is involved in clinical research on tetralogy of Fallot, valvular heart disease, and maternal cardiac disease management. She will be joining the University of Manitoba and starting an Echocardiography and ACHD practice in Winnipeg, Manitoba in 2018.

Return to EDUCATION DAY IN ACHD 2017 Website